

1968 Obituary:

John Mitchell Weigel died in Colorado Springs, CO on October 19, 2010, less than a year after being diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. His wife, MaryDee, wrote a poignant and deeply touching diary of his illness (http://andrewweigel.name/Johns_Illness_Log.html). John grew up in Colorado Springs, and at Dartmouth was active in WDCR, WFRD, the Aegis and Fencing Club. A Phi Beta Kappa graduate, he received a Masters in Chemistry from the California Institute of Technology, and a second Masters in Business Administration from the University of Colorado. He was a long time employee of Lockheed Martin Technical Operations as a Software Systems Analyst. He was active in the Youth for Understanding Exchange Program, and through this program had an extended “family” of 9 children. He and MaryDee enjoyed visiting National Parks, traveling and having fun with their grandchildren.

He was married to Mary Dolores Crowley in 1983, and is survived by her, their son Timothy, and five grandchildren.

Also see John’s online obituary at: <http://andrewweigel.name/JMWObit.html>.